ONE MAN KILLED.

In Collapse of Sides of Ditch—Others Hurt.

Brandon, Sept. 24.—An Italian, Michele Orassi 47 years old, who was known as "Mike" was killed, and three others whose names are unknown were injured here yesterday while working in a ditch which is being dug in putting in the new water system.

Three men (out of about 30 on the entire job) were working together in the ditch which is only about five feet deep, when rock was struck. They were preparing to drill for a blast, when the sides caved in, killing Orassi who was wholly buried by the earth.

The others were only partially buried. One had a knee dislocated, another a hip broken and the third was hurt internally. The dead man was from Boston where he leaves a wife and two children.

The board of health is making an investigation.
